The Milwaukee_Portal

Portals facilitate a wide range of immersive experiences

Host facilitated, meaningful conversations

Shared_Studios hosts dialogues on topics in health, education, gender, culture, and more, beginning with a simple prompt to connect people globally.

Solve challenges through global hackathons

Bring together engineers, students, and entrepreneurs in Portals to solve local and global problems.

Watch a hackathon with Johns Hopkins and Gaza City.

Perform, display, and create art

Collaborate with artists from diverse traditions and co-produce a piece of art – be it a painting, sculpture, story, or rock concert.

Share coffee, tea, and meals across the globe

Share a meal across one table stretching through the Internet. Break bread while breaking the barriers of geographic distance and cultural difference.

Watch a Shared Meal between New York and Kigali.

Celebrate special events

Host global celebrations, DJ battles and dance parties. From Cinco de Mayo to Eid, share special moments worldwide.

Watch people dancing through the Internet.

Learn from, and teach, the world

Learn how to make a piñata from experts in Mexico or how to create excellent calligraphy from craftspeople in Myanmar. Shared_Studios can curate just about anything.

Watch Portals in K-12 and at Harvard University.
